

reduce

the risk

Although we cannot control the general environment of the public buildings in which we hold synchro events, Synchro Swim Ontario wants to reduce the risk of life-threatening allergic reactions. Therefore we request that those attending events refrain from bringing peanut/nuts and related products to the facility. This should also be considered in the planning of concession food items, banquets and other related food areas.

Thanks!
12/07/07